

Why rent a house

For the first harbingers of spring is difficult not to take my thoughts to the holidays. It is not easy to get heat from the warmth of the sun without first imagining that you are lying on a beautiful beach. So, we start with the preparations: choose your destination, find accommodation and above contain expenditure.

Peoples prefer to rent a house

According to ISTAT (Italian statistics agency) are more than 60% peoples who prefer to spend their holidays in private accommodation, holiday homes rather than hotels, guest houses and residences. Choose a house to replace the hotel offers big savings, especially for families and groups of friends. 61% of requests for rent, according to ISTAT, comes from households. In most cases, the choice is dictated by the desire to find accommodation for four-legged friends, but in general those with small children is hiring the best way to avoid rigid schedules, waste and restrictions of any kind.

Cheap holiday

Analyzing data on the past summer, families looking for a house that guests mainly from four to six people and prefer the sea of Puglia, Sardinia and Sicily. But also to groups of friends to rent the house seems to be the best solution. Doing a bit calculations, for a group of six people, whereas the central week of August (high season), the cost per capita is about 20 Euro per day. For the low season you get to spend almost half price: less than 10 euros per day in the month of June!

Advantages and disadvantages of renting house

The biggest advantage you have in renting a holiday home is certainly freedom in the movements and hours. No restrictions, no time limits, no breakfast lost ... you decide for yourself ! Low prices and the possibility of dividing the share of rent is definitely another strong point. Move freely their pets on vacation without being snubbed by anyone. The disadvantages can include life very similar to the daily needs for normal cooking, shopping and cleaning. But the scent of the holiday softened even these tasks.

Our villa in Salento is the optimal solution

Says what they have learned beyond a shadow of a doubt that our house is the best solution for the majority of families. Visit our website, admires the wonderful corner of the world in which is located our house, take a look at the regulation and book your stay in a beautiful land as the Salento that will not leave disappointed. We wait you!